

Well "Armed"

When company comes there is no time to waste—no chances to be taken—so mother sees that there is always a can of on hand. Cakes, pies, doughnuts, muffins and all good things to eat must be dressed up in their best taste and looks.

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

Then, too, her reputation as a cook must be upheld—and she "stakes" it on Calumet every time. She knows it will not disappoint her.

Order a can and have the "company" kind of bakings every day.

Calumet contains only such ingredients as have been approved officially by the U. S. Food Authorities.

HIGHEST QUALITY AWARDS

AN OLD MAN'S STOMACH.

As we grow older and less active, less and less food is required to meet the demands of our bodies. If too much is habitually taken, the stomach will rebel. When a man reaches the advanced age of 85 or 90, you will find that he is a light eater. Be as careful as you will, however, you will occasionally eat more than you should and will feel the need of Chamberlain's Tablets to correct the disorder. These tablets do not contain pepsin, but strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. They also cause a gentle movement of the bowels.

Fair Warning!

All parties owing accounts more than two months past due to the undersigned merchants, who are members of the Business Men's Protective Association of Bourbon County, are hereby requested to call and arrange with said merchants for a settlement of such accounts at once. Unless you do this, each merchant will, according to our By-Laws, be compelled to give your name and amount of debt to our Secretary for record and collection.

The purpose of our Association is not to put any hardship or place any undeserved criticism upon any one—but something had to be done to break up the "dead beat" business of this county. Your merchant no doubt will act humanely and allow you to pay just a little each week on your old account. Surely you do not want your name to appear in our "Delinquent List."

All your merchant and our Association asks of you is come and let us reason together. Show that you are honest and mean to pay your debts, by even paying a little each week as best you can. This is surely not asking too much. But remember, you must do this at once, before our Black Lists are printed and mailed to each of our members.

THE BUSINESS MEN'S PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION OF BOURBON COUNTY.

FRED WECKESSER, Chairman.

MEN IN THE ARMY WOMEN RUN THE TOWN.

The little village of California, west of Maysville, is almost as much of a war-stricken town as some of the towns in France. All of the young men have joined the army and left the women to do the work and run the town.

The Chesapeake & Ohio station agent is Mrs. E. L. Herndon, her son having gone to war. He was formerly the agent. Mrs. Stanley Jones is a rural route carrier, taking her husband's place. Mrs. Wheeler is postmistress while her husband is fighting for democracy. Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Ruby Shaw are wielding the ax to get wood to burn. The women did all the harvesting and shucked the corn. A Red Cross circle has been organized and $200 subscribed. The first soldier to volunteer was Westby Burke, whose father is an invalid. A drummer got off the train in the little town which he had formerly visited, and not seeing any men in the village inquired whether the men were in the harvest fields.

"No, indeed," replied the woman storekeeper, "we women did all the harvesting of our grain while our husbands and sons have gone to gather in the Germans."

STATE TAKES FIFTEEN-YEAR LEASE ON FISH HATCHERY

A lease for fifteen years on the Benoni Macklin State fish hatchery, near the Forks of Elkhorn, was given the State by Mrs. Thomas Hinds, of Chicago, a daughter of Benoni Macklin. The lease was presented at exercises held at the hatchery and was accepted by Governor Stanley in behalf of the State. Ed. Morrow, of Somerset, Republican candidate for Governor at the last general election, made an address on "Fish Conservation." Both he and Governor Stanley emphasized the importance of the enforcement of the fish and game laws.

Following the exercises, J. Quincy Ward, Executive Agent of the Fish and Game Commission, served a luncheon for the guests. J. G. Sachs, of Louisville, chairman of the State Game and Fish Commission, was unable to be present at the exercises and Mr. Ward presided at the meeting.

WOMEN TORTURED!

Suffer Terribly With Corns Because of High Heels, But Why Care Now.

Women wear high heels which buckle up their toes and they suffer terribly from corns. Women then proceed to trim these pests, seeking relief, but they hardly realize the terrible danger from infection, says a Cincinnati authority.

Corns can easily be lifted out with the fingers if you will get from any drug store a quarter of an ounce of a drug called Freezone. This is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callous from one's feet. You simply apply a few drops directly upon the tender, aching corn or callous. The soreness is relieved at once and soon the entire corn or callous, roots and all, lifts out without one particle of pain.

The Freezone is a sticky substance which dries in a moment. It just shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. Tell your wife about this.

DROP IN PRICE OF CANNED GOODS BEING PREDICTED.

Immediate drop in the prices of canned vegetables has been predicted by the Food Administration as the result of putting into operation the license system for wholesale dealers. Much of the canned goods, it was said, was bought by dealers at low prices last spring and can be sold at less than the present market prices.

Dealers charging more than a reasonable margin of profit are liable to the forfeiture of their license to do business.

The retailers will be controlled by cutting off, through the pressure of the license system upon wholesalers, of their supplies if they try profiteering tactics.

MELANCHOLY OCTOBER.

We confess to feeling stung in the matter of October weather. In Kentucky October should be the month of mellow midday and cool morning and evening; the month of ripened corn, of frost-dyed foliage, or yellow pumpkins between the fodder shocks; the month of marvelous moonlight nights cool enough for an overcoat, yet warm enough for a lover's stroll.

Ice was half an inch thick upon rain barrels in Kentucky the last day of October, and gloomy days, days of cutting humid winds, days of snow and slaty clouds were numerous in the October calendar.

Daffodils have bloomed in Kentucky Christmas week, and fires have been laid and lifted in August, but nothing more unseasonable has occurred than the weather of October 1917.

Let us hope for compensation in November.—Frankfort State Journal.

It is estimated that England is saving 50 tons of paper weekly by the abolition of the newspaper contents bill.

New King of Greece in Salonika With General Who Reorganized Armies

Greece is now one of the Entente Allies and, like the United States, is ready to fight to make the world safe for democracy. King Alexander, who ascended the throne after the forced abdication of his father, King Constantine, is shown here with General Sarrajl, the French commander, who has reorganized the Greek armies. The picture was taken in Salonika following the armistice which partially wiped out the city. This is the first picture of King

Pictures Used to "Feed" Gullible German People

The German people have been "educated" with pictures of this kind since the war began. Newspapers and periodicals give the widest publicity to illustrations which tend to show how successful the U-boat warfare is. This photograph is a reproduction of a picture printed in a German newspaper. It shows the destruction of a steamer at sea by a submarine torpedo. An artist has blackened the smoke to make it more dreadful.

THE KENTUCKY MAGAZINE FOR NOVEMBER.

The Kentucky Magazine for November is out and carries an interesting table of contents. The text and the illustrations of this issue make the usual special appeal to Kentuckians. The editor, Mr. Huntington, has an article on "Kentucky and the Perry's Victory Memorial," and there is a timely article from Alan P. Gilmour on the "Patriotism of Lincoln." The advertising patronage which is now coming to this publication, without special solicitation, is a positive evidence that it is making good a little sooner, perhaps, than its promoters anticipated.

ANSWERS THE NATION'S CALL

Herbert Hoover having designated the International Live Stock Exposition a "Food Training Camp," by this act drafted this institution into the service of this country. "More meat" is the appeal of the food administrator. To win the war, beef and pork (especially the latter) will be necessary. There is a shortage of meat and fats. For years this deficiency has been developing. During that period the International Live Stock Exposition has acted as a conserving agency, educating the country along lines of economical production; otherwise supply conditions in this emergency would have been even less favorable. This season a great drive for immediate increase in production will be made. The moment is opportune and conditions ripe. Consumption of meats has reached a stage several laps ahead of production and the International Live Stock Exposition teaches the way out. More cattle, hogs and sheep of better quality and earlier maturity, insuring maximum weight and minimum expense, is the solution of the problem.

The International Live Stock Exposition, which will be held during the first week in December, will this year emphasize its mission. The problem of the moment is more food and in no other way can the lesson be more convincingly taught.

MRS. P. O. STUCHELL TELLS HOW SHE CURED HER SON OF A COLD.

"When my son Ellis was sick with a cold last winter I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It helped him at once and quickly broke up his cold," writes Mrs. P. O. Stuchell, Homer City, Pa. This remedy has been in use for many years. Its good qualities have been fully proven by many thousands of people. It is pleasant and safe to take.
